

Travel / Golf Travel

Categories

U.S. news
World news
Politics
Business
Sports
Entertainment
Health
Tech & science
Travel
News
Destinations
Tips
Deals
Seasonal
Cruising
Active
Family
Business travel
Luxury
Your World Photos
Weather
Local news
Browse
Video
Photos
Community

Want an upscale golf vacation alternative?

Northern Michigan boasts some of the nation's hottest courses and resorts

Brian Walters / Golf Publisher Syndications

Bay Harbor Golf Club features three nines—and the Links and Quarry nines are both as spectacular as you'll find. Many holes play perched above Lake Michigan, then the holes wind inland and play through and around an abandoned rock quarry. The Quarry nine finishes with two scenic holes playing down along the rocky shores.

By Brandon Tucker

Golf Publisher Syndications

updated 5:22 p.m. ET, Tues., July. 24, 2007

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. - When temperatures down south climb into triple digits travelers from coast to coast find summer refuge on Northern Michigan's golf courses.

Golf here offers more than just pristine beauty and cool summer breezes. The best of the best in Michigan have something for everyone - at least, everyone with the dough for it.

Slide show

Launch

Top 10 'accessible' golf courses

From California to Florida, these amazing greens are open for anyone to play.

TRAVELGOLF.COM

Plan your Euro golf trip at GolfEurope.com

The Web's definitive golf course guide

BadGolfer.com: Hall of Shame, golf jokes, etc.

Your weather

Your forecast

Click to see the weather outlook for your destination

